Funds SA appoints Head of Technology

Funds SA are pleased to welcome Simon Boyley into the role of Head of Technology.

After spending many years abroad, he returns to Adelaide bringing a wealth of experience in Information Technology (IT) governance and strategy, cyber security, IT architecture and solutions, and project management.

Simon has spent the past seven years at LGT Wealth Management in London and was most recently the Head of Technology. During his time with the organisation, he led a critical role in facilitating the growth of the organisation from £7 billion to £29 billion in Assets Under Management.

Commenting on the appointment, Funds SA CEO John Piteo said "To attract someone of Simon's experience and calibre to the organisation is a wonderful opportunity for Funds SA. Our technology architecture and capabilities will be a crucial component in delivering strong, long-term investment outcomes for our clients."

Note: Funds SA is the investment corporation owned by the Government of South Australia, managing investment portfolios on behalf of South Australia's public sector superannuation funds and approved public authorities across a range of different sectors, with funds under management in excess of $42 billion.
